

August 2010 Show and Tell

Janet Turini made this wall hanging she calls Proud to be an American from a kit that she purchased at quilt festival last year. She had a deadline, her husband's birthday. She finished it a few hours ahead of time!

Paula Byrd and Brenda Motl made this wonderful purple quilt for James as a big THANK YOU for taking care of the printing of our program at this year's auction. James will be giving the quilt to his teenage daughter whose favorite color is purple! Margo Pieper did a great job on the quilting.

Sandra Ingram made this stack and whack quilt she calls Aquarius with fabric she purchased at the Road to California quilt show back in 2001. The top has been done for years and she finally got it quilted!

Norma Larson made this quilt she calls Baby Bell for her great grandson (a twin) due September 20th. Norma has made other quilts for the twins that she shared with us in the prior months. I bet she can't wait for the arrival of the twins!

Mary Taylor made this beautiful quilt she calls 30's Snowball.
It was quilted by Stephanie Sumpter.

Tina Pratt made this quilt she calls 12 Days of Christmas from a panel. Tina added borders and quilted and embellished it with gold thread. She has three more at home that she will have ready for gifts this Christmas. Another UFO “almost” completed!
